First Life Sentence

When Judge William H. Thompson last week imposed a life sentence in the penitentiary on Geo. L. Pearce, a farmer of Stanton county, for shooting J. I. Silvey, the Thirty-second Judicial District had its first conviction for first degree murder. A previous trial resulted in a hung jury. The jury this time was out five hours before returning a verdict. It is considered remarkable that a jury could be obtained in the county to vote for conviction, as the entire male population is only one hundred and fifty. The total of the two venires called by Judge Thompson was 121. Bond has been fixed at $25,000 pending an appeal.

The shooting of Silvey is said to have resulted from a dispute over land boundaries.

Agricultural Institute

Prof. S. U. Black, superintendent of the Panhandle Agricultural Institute, has just sent out the first annual year book of the state school, located at Goodwell, Okla.

This year book, issued by the students of the P. A. I., shows on every page the great amount of work that may be accomplished by the youth of our land if their energies are intelligently directed along practical educational lines.

We would like to give you a peek into this year book that you might know what our neighbors are doing in their music, debate, basket ball, sewing class, cooking class, botany, corn judging, basketry, Shakespeare Club, gymnasium work, manual training, where the boys in the orchestra make the instruments on which they play, and the Y. W. C. A. work. But, as we cannot, will say the class poems, songs and yells, together with all the above work, bespeak a much older institution than the P. A. I.

We congratulate Prof. Black upon results, and may the future results of this school be proportionally as great as the energy and hard work of the superintendent of the institution.

A meeting will be held at the Baptist church at 8 o'clock, Friday evening, June 30th, for the purpose of organizing a class in chorus and sight singing. It is the purpose of the teacher to give a thorough drill in the rudiments and reading of music. All those interested and those wishing to take up the work from the beginning are requested to be present at this meeting.

Mrs. M. E. ROSSITER.

The boys' ball team have ordered their new suits and hope that they will be here by July Fourth.

I will sell on Saturday, "sales-day", four good milch cows.

Jennings, at the home of the bride's parents, in northeast Stevens county on the evening of Wednesday, June 28. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Haskinson. The young couple will make their home on Mr. Jennings' farm near Moscow. The Democrat joins a host of friends in extending congratulations.

A light shower the first of the week brought temporary relief to the hay fever victims, and freshened up the lawns.

Arrested for Gambling

Walter Drummond, John Riggle and Dr. Grimbly were taken up Wednesday on a charge of gambling at the Grimbly barn in the east part of the city on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights. The first two were charged on two counts, while Grimbly will face four counts. All of the boys except Drummond gave bond. The game is said to have been poker.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Molter and family returned Wednesday evening from a visit with friends and relatives in Illinois. They came back in a new Overland touring car, and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ayers of Charleston, Ill.

Manager Stribling is very particular to see that none of the pictures displayed at the Photoplay are in the least objectionable.

Henry D. Boyd has purchased the residence property at the corner of Lincoln Avenue and Third Street of J. T. Dalton.

Temperance

The history of the temperance movement dates from ancient times and we learn that the Jewish Nazirites acted on total abstinence principles.

Mohammedans and the higher Hindu caste nominally abstained from intoxicating liquors, this being a religious obligation placed upon them.

The first temperance society on record is that of St. Christopher, founded in Germany in 1517, whose members were pledged to exercise moderation.

An organization formed at East Hampton, Long Island, in 1651 for the purpose of limiting the sale of intoxicants, was the first to be instituted in America. However, the American Temperance Union was not organized on the basis of total abstinence until 1836.

A crusade was started at Washington Court House, Ohio, in 1873. It was an organized effort against saloons and resulted in the closing of many places where liquors were kept for sale.

In these campaigns men and women armed with weapons and hymn-books persuaded the keepers to close their places of business or forcibly destroyed their wares. The most powerful society of temperance workers ever organized is the Women's Christian Temperance Union. It has auxiliaries in every state or territory of the United States, and is organized locally in more than ten thousand towns in the Union.

This organization is an organization of Christian women for the young, reforming the drinking classes, stimulating the public sentiment, and ultimately securing the abolition of the liquor traffic by legal enactment.

To District Clerks.

We sent out the census books Monday and hope every district clerk has received his by this time. A few clerks have already sent their annual reports to this office. We are certainly grateful to them for their promptness. They will now please take the censuses and return the same to this office as soon as completed.

To the clerks who have not sent their annual report we wish to say that it need not be sent until after the census has been taken which should be completed on June 30th or as soon after as possible.

The report of the amount voted for school purposes should be sent at the earliest convenience.

As the county superintendent has to make a report to the state superintendent of all the items contained in the district clerk's reports it will expediate matters exceedingly if all the clerks will send in their report some time in July. And above all things, will you not kindly fill out every item called for, accurately. It will save you trouble and us also, besides our reports will then truly be of value.

MARY E. TODD,
County Superintendent.

The offering for Children's Day will be taken at the Christian Sunday School next Sunday morning at the Sunday School hour. Children, put your offering in an envelope and bring it in at that time.

Notice the "after-the-ball-is-over" sort of a wail of the Syracuse Republican in its issue of April 7, 1911:

"The fire brings back the thought to the entire city of Syracuse the urgent need of a waterworks. It was some time before the old hose cart arrived and connections made with the Santa Fe tank to get the streams thrown on the flames, and then, not enough hose to reach the flames was secured. Tanks were filled and the water carried in buckets and dashed upon the burning buildings. Had Syracuse a waterworks, it is firmly believed, that the furniture store would have been saved and also there is a good reason to believe that the rear end of the hardware store would have been standing yet."

One of the very pleasant functions of the hot weather season was the luncheon and card party given by Mrs. J. H. Cavanaugh Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. I. D. Shady of Great Bend. The invitations for the party were written in rhyme, and a prize for the best answer was awarded to Mrs. Coleman who tied with Mrs. T. W. Gaw for the prize, a dainty booklet. After a delicious four course luncheon was served at 1:30 by the hostess, the tables were arranged for whist. The prize, a beautiful jewel box was awarded to Mrs. Coleman. The guest list included: Mesdames Sutton, W. O. Woods, Steverson, O. M. Woods, C. E. Woods, Yocum, Stouffer, Dobson, Summers, Henry, Flood, P. A. Craig, Nason, J. B. Craig, C. W. Eidson, Cason, Karau, Black, Baughman, Gaw, Funk, McCoy, Tynan and Coleman.

B. M. Peck is confined to his bed with neuritis.

The private car of President Mudge of the Rock Island lines was attached to No. 1 Wednesday, the Mudge family being on their way to the coast. With the party were Superintendent Mullinex of the power department; Gen. Superintendent Smalley of Topeka; N. D. Ballentine, superintendent of car service; P. J. Colligan, master of motive power; Division Superintendent H. B. Greenough of Dalhart and M. E. Paxton of Kansas City, general manager of the Grier system. The officials left the Mudge car here and went west on a later train. They were greatly interested in the new buildings here, and took away a number of pictures of the new station and hotel, which are the finest along the system. It is probable that the congregation of such a set of officials here at this time has some significance, but what the visit meant no one seems to know.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Ford returned Wednesday from their wedding trip. They were fortunate enough to escape serious injury in an automobile accident near Ellsworth the first of the week, when the steering gear of the car in which they were riding broke and the machine turned over twice.
